When a student drops out of school, their decision impacts the family, school, and community they leave behind. Helping them get back isn't easy. It requires extensive resources to track them down and provide an alternative pathway to graduation.

Graduation Alliance minimizes the stress of re-engaging former students to reclaim school funding and increase graduation rates.

Re-Engagement Experts

Our team has been re-engaging at-risk and disengaged students for close to 15 years. Using a multi-channel outreach strategy, we find students and remove the barriers preventing them from achieving academic success.

Asynchronous Online Courses

Graduation Alliance is fully accredited by Cognia and offers more than 100 online courses that can be completed at any time and from anywhere.

- Curriculum is built using the Quality Matters K-12 Online/Blended Rubric
- 29 ACE CREDIT courses (students can earn college credit)
- 25+ NCAA-approved core courses
- Career and technical courses, including life skills

Unparalleled Support

Students are wrapped in a multi-tiered system of supports to help them reach the finish line.

Academic Coaches check in regularly to monitor pace and progress.

24/7 tutoring services ensure students can get help with their classes when they need it.

Teachers provide constructive feedback and help students achieve academic excellence.

Local Advocates ensure students' social and emotional needs are met.

Sustainable Funding

Graduation Alliance's dropout recovery program is often cost-neutral, resulting in minimal financial impact on districts. Our pay-for-performance model is based on previously defined academic goals and has zero startup costs, thereby eliminating the financial risk of launching a new program.
